

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL DISTRICT 6800 CONFERENCE

REGISTRATION FORM April 30 – May 1, 2004

The Brand New Gertrude Ford Performing Arts Center on the Ole Miss Campus

[From Hwy 6 Take Old Taylor Rd. Exit, Go North About a Half Mile Until it Dead Ends at University Av. You are there]
 (In addition to meals, listed below, plenary sessions Friday 1-4:30; Saturday 9-11:45, 1:15-5)

First Name _____

Badge Name _____

Club Office Held _____

Spouse/Guest Name _____

Last Name _____

Club Name _____

District Office Held _____

First Time Conferee? Yes _____ No _____

Paul Harris Fellow? Yes _____ No _____

Rotarian a Benefactor? Yes _____ No _____

Spouse a PHF? Yes _____ No _____

Rotarian a Major Donor? Yes _____ No _____

Must be paid by each attendee

| Event | Cost | Time | Rotarian | Spouse | TOTAL |
|--|--------------------|----------------------------|----------|--------|-------|
| REGISTRATION – ROTARIAN [See *below if H&W both Rotarians] >>>AFTER APRIL 12 ADD $10 | 35.00 | [Total Cost for Both Days] | | | |
| REGISTRATION – SPOUSE/GUEST >>>AFTER APRIL 12 ADD $10 | 20.00 | | | | |
| Friday Evening Dinner | 20.00 | 7 PM | | | |
| Saturday Breakfast Honoring PHF's, Sustaining Members, Major Donors (Open to all Rotarians) | 15.00 | 8 AM | | | |
| Saturday Noon Luncheon, featuring former Ambassadorial Scholar Sen. Thad Cochran | 20.00 | 12 NOON | | | |
| Saturday Spouse Guest Special Tour (see below) | 20.00 | 1:30 PM | | | |
| Saturday Passing-of-the-Gavel Banquet | 30.00 | 7:00 PM | | | |
| Banquet (only) without Conference Registration Rotarian $50 Spouse/Guest $30 | (50.00) (30.00) | 7:00 PM | | | |

Indicate any special dietary needs

☺ A Silent Auction will be held on Saturday Evening. All proceeds go to the Rotary Foundation. A reception honoring incoming governor Wieland is set for 5:45 – 6:30 at the Brandt Memory House across from the Ford Center.

CHECK ENCLOSED FOR $

>>NOTE: The spouse/guest tour on Saturday afternoon will be a bus trip to "Strawberry Plains," the Mississippi Center of the Audubon Society, located on a 2,200 acre wildlife refuge near Holly Springs. The site affords the viewer to see many varieties of birds, animals, and horticultural wonders (and the time should be just about right for the annual migration of humming birds.) Following the visit to the site a guided bus tour of Holly Springs' numerous antebellum homes will be held. (General Ulysses Grant said, about Holly Springs, that it was, "the town too beautiful to burn.") NOTE: Casual Dress

REGISTRATION: Registration fees must be paid in full whether attending one or both days. To assure proper completion of plans/ tentative count of attendees Monday April 12 as the final day reduced registration forms can be received. Late registration fee is $10.00. Last day to register for the spouses tour is April 15. * Husband and wife both Rotarians? Total registration is $55.00]

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS: The multi-million dollar newly renovated Downtown Inn (formerly the Holiday Inn and now a Best Western) will provide rooms for $64 a night. Each attendee should make reservations no later than April 18 to receive this rate. Mention the Rotary block of rooms when you call to receive the above rate. Their number: 662-234-3031.

MAIL FORM AND CHECKS TO RUTH KLOHA, CONFERENCE CO-CHAIR, 135 W. ELDER ST, HOLLY SPRINGS, MS 38635.

CLUB PRESIDENTS–PLEASE REPRODUCE FORM AND MAKE AVAILABLE TO MEMBERS